Hi Steve:

It was a pleasure meeting you and talking to you at the Missouri Numismatic/Central States Numismatic Society Seminar here in St. Louis.

Thank you for your participation. It is great to get people of your stature involved in numismatic education. As I mentioned, I have a nearly complete set of 1980 Coin World that reappeared out of the mists of time. The front section of January 9, 1980 and the second section of January 23, February 6 and February 20, 1980 are all missing. Otherwise all the sections and dates for the rest of the year are intact. They had a rough journey, many were wet, a little mold, and some general deterioration. I did triage and some remediation (alcohol on the mold), but not permanent archival restoration. All of the pages have been fully dried and restored to around 60% humidity. Luckily, none of the papers were so cemented together that they couldn't be separated and dried. All of the pages are readable, a few lines here and there may be hard to image. They are split into two boxes, one January- June 1980 and the second box July- December 1980 (with one stray page from 1990). These are double walled boxes with over 200lb crush strength, so they should travel well.

My question to you is about shipping logistics. To whom should they be sent via what mode of transportation? Truck freight is how we sent the other boxes, but that doesn't seem to make economic sense to me for just two boxes. However, let me know your pleasure and I will be happy to arrange for their shipment to you. I believe Coin World was kind enough to pay for shipping the original boxes and wonder if you can extend that courtesy again. We are excited that Beth's vision to get this invaluable numismatic reference digitized is still being actively pursued. If there is anything we can do to help with that process, please let us know. If we can ever be of service, please let me know. Tom Serfass, Curator, Newman Money Museum
